

Paul Krämer - Vita

Paul Krämer studied choral conducting at the Hochschule für Musik und Tanz Köln with Prof. Marcus Creed and Prof. Peter Dijkstra.

Paul collaborates regularly with the WDR Rundfunkchor, the Netherlands Radio Choir as well as with the SWR Vokalensemble. Next to a cappella music, his focus is the oratorio and choral-symphonic repertoire. He has already conducted the Gürzenich Orchestra Cologne, the Cologne Chamber Orchestra, the Bochumer Symphoniker, the Sinfonieorchester Wuppertal, Concerto con Anima and the Cölner Barockorchester.

His work takes him to major venues throughout Europe, such as the Cologne Philharmonie, the Elbphilharmonie Hamburg, the Concertgebouw Amsterdam and the Bozar in Brussels.

Paul Krämer is the conductor of the Kartäuserkantorei Köln and of the Philharmonischer Chor Bonn.
